From Bull's-Eye Marketing, Inc.

The World Series of Darts qualifier event schedule is now complete! All locations, times and venues have been confirmed and are included in the official calendar below, along with the contact information for each event's local area coordinator. Additional information about the qualifier events, such as formats, can be found in the "Official Rules & Regulations" >>> article, which was also posted today.

Should you have any additional questions pertaining to individual qualifier events and/or locations, they are best directed to the local area coordinators. General questions, however, about the World Series of Darts event itself (such as rules, format, registration, et cetera...), should instead be directed to us here at Bull's-Eye News Magazine, your official news source for this landmark darts event.>>>

And stay tuned...

We're just getting started with our coverage of the World Series of Darts event! In coming weeks watch for a dramatically expanded area of this Web site dedicated entirely to bringing you all of the up-to-the-minute information, online registration and late-breaking news you'll need regarding this ground-breaking, televised event.
